

Clara Barton

"Angel of the Battlefield"

(1821-1912)

Celebrate Women's History Month with American heroine Clara Barton. Character actress Jessa Piaia will use drama to reveal the accomplishments, struggles, and contributions of this famous American woman. Ms. Barton will recount her work on the Civil War battleground, with the U.S. Government in establishing official records and to initiate the first national cemetery in Andersonville, Georgia. Celebrate the founding of the American Red Cross and her 22 year service as its first president.

Jessa Piaia performs at educational institutions, museums, libraries, and social and cultural organizations throughout New England. Ms. Piaia studied performance at London's Oval House Theatre and is a University of Massachusetts graduate. She works in the Anthropology Department at Harvard University.

Tuesday, March 21, 6:30-8:00

Snow date: March 28

Wells Public Library

Registration requested as space is limited - 646-4565

The program is free and appropriate for adults and children ages 10 and up accompanied by parents.

Sponsored by Wells-Ogunquit Adult Community Education,
the Wells Public Library and Prime Care

March is Women's History Month. Celebrate!