

Jessa Piaia <jessapiaia@gmail.com>

Mrs. Jack at St. Botolph Club April 16, 2014

1 message

Roger Howlett <roger@childsgallery.com>

Thu, Apr 17, 2014 at 1:57 PM

To: Jessa Piaia <jessapiaia@gmail.com>

Cc: Anita Lincoln <alinc177@gmail.com>, Brian Jones <bej.music@verizon.net>, Carl Berke <CBERKE@partners.org>, David Chernin <da.chernin@verizon.net>, Jane Goldman <janeegoldman@comcast.net>, Judy Walsh <judithwalsh@gmail.com>, Ken Turino <ken.turino@gmail.com>, Ken Turino <kturino@historicnewengland.org>, Lee Oestreicher <lee.oestreicher@me.com>, Mark Churchill <mark.churchill@elsistemausa.org>, Michael Robbins <michaelrobbins@mayfloweradvisors.com>, Peter Drummey <pdrummey@masshist.org>, Roger Howlett <roger.childsgallery@gmail.com>, Roger Howlett <roger@childsgallery.com>, Steve Friedlaender <sfriedlaender@hmfh.com>, Bradford Rowell <bradfordrowell@gmail.com>, Gerard Chevalier <gerard@stbotolphclub.org>, Megan Spies <megan@stbotolphclub.org>, Richard Baiano <richard@childsgallery.com>, Frederick Meyer <cambridgefred@comcast.net>

Dear Jessa,

You were reigning hostess of Boston and formidable guest last night of the St. Botolph Club. Your performance was perfect and hit every right note, from mingling at cocktails, to Proper Remarks and Reminiscences, to the entertaining of questions.

You continued as the gracious dinner guest as Isabella and made light of the lamb chops with the perfect story.

My e-mails were buzzing this morning with kudos (for you - not for me). I believe that you got one with photos attached. Your look and that of many guests was elegant and reflected the period feeling of the 1910 birthday party.

Thank you so much.

Best wishes,

Roger

--

D. Roger Howlett
Senior Research Fellow
Childs Gallery
169 Newbury Street
Boston, Massachusetts 02116
617 536-2948

Chairman, Program Committee
St. Botolph Club
617 901-9105 (cell)