

BEST BEST

Stratford. For mature audiences $12.

SATURDAY

- ▶ What: A portrayal of Rachel Revere
- ▶ Where: First Unitarian Church, Union and Eighth streets, New Bedford.
- ▶ When: 5 p.m.

Actress Jesse Piaia, who specializes in portraying women in history, presents "A Boston Tea Party in Colonial New Bedford." Her presentation of Mrs. Paul Revere will be preceded by the Pilgrim Handbell Ringers and followed by refreshments in this program sponsored by the Unitarian Women's Alliance and Greater New Bedford Church Women United. $5, children under 12, $2.

SUNDAY

- ▶ What: Pete Seeger and friends
- ▶ Where: Tiverton Four Corners Center for Arts & Education, 3852 Main Road, Tiverton. (401) 624-2600.
- ▶ When: 2 p.m.

Folk legend Pete Seeger has been singing in schools, at camps and peace rallies, for unions and civil rights marches for 60 years. He joins with his grandson Tao Rodriguez, who brings some Latin tradition to their concerts. Folk duo Atwater-Donnelly opens this outdoor fund-raiser. $12 adults, $6 kids in